

Professor Shanon Patel

BDS, MSc, MClintDent, MRD, PhD, FDS, FHEA

Professor of Endodontolgy – King's College London
Consultant Endodontist - Private practice

Shanon divides his time between specialist practice and at teaching at King's College London Dental Institute.

His main research interests are CBCT, root resorption and the restoration of root treated teeth. He has supervised 50+ Masters and PhD students.

Shanon's background as a clinical academic has resulted in him publishing over 100 papers. He is the lead author of 3 European Society of Endodontology position statements (CBCT 2014, 2019 and External Cervical Resorption 2018).

Shanon has been invited as a keynote or plenary speaker at over 80 lectures in international meetings spanning 5 continents. He is recognized internationally as a leading authority on 3D (CBCT) imaging and root resorption.

Shanon has co-authored 4 textbooks which have been translated into 5 different languages.